

R U 12-25?

R U 12-25 ??

Are you aged 12-25.? Then Bleary Young Farmers’ Club is the place to be.

Club meetings will be resuming this Friday night, 5th September at 8pm with a ‘Team Challenge’.

The club meets in Bleary Farmers’ Hall located on the Upper Ballydougan Road with club meetings usually held on the first and third Friday of each month.

The Bleary club is operated by its members who are part of a wider organisation known at the Young Farmers’ Clubs of Ulster.

You don’t need to be a Farmer, nor live in the county, to be a Young Farmer!.

You have seen what we are capable of, so why not join in on the fun?

The Young Farmers’ Clubs theme for 2008/2009 is ‘All for One and One For All’.

Membership fees for the new club year are as follows: Age 12-14 £9.50; 14-16 £11.50; 16-18 £16.50; 18-21 £19.50; 21+ £26.50. Please note that all membership fees are in force for the operation and administration of YFC activities.
